Bruce Ladd has served as Deputy Regional Administrator for the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Region VII since 2015, supporting HUD programs and strategic initiatives across Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, and Nebraska. He serves as a liaison between HUD and regional stakeholders, helping advance the Department's priorities and implementation of its strategic goals. Prior to this role, Bruce held leadership positions within HUD's Office of Housing, working across multiple areas of Multifamily Housing. His experience in federal housing programs and regional collaboration provides valuable insight into housing policy, program implementation, and partnerships that support housing affordability and access. He is a graduate of Kansas State University.
